RULES FOR THE EXAMINATION OF TEMPLE JEWELS AND FOR SALE OF SUCH OF THEM AS ARE UNFIT FOR USE.
~~XXXX~~

1. The jewels and other valuable articles ^{10/11/12} ~~both~~ ----- deposited in the Treasury ^{or} ~~and~~ retained in the temples in the custody of archaks or Dharmadarsis or Vahivat-dars belonging to major and minor institutions shall be examined by the Sub Division Officers and Amildars respectively in the presence of Dharmadarsis at least once a year, and a list in triplicate shall be prepared of the unserviceable or useless ones, whether of ---- silver or gold or set with pearls, rubies or any other valuable stone, in consultation with the Dharmadarsis, with the ^a approximate value noted against each, . if -- necessary the services of a professional goldsmith may be secured to determine doubtful cases, and to fix the approximate value of the selected articles.
2. The list so prepared should be submitted to the -- Deputy Commissioner, with the opinion of the Dharmadarsis, whether they should be converted into any -- other articles or articles of jewellery, or disposed of by sale, after ascertaining local feelings also in the matter.
3. The Deputy Commissioner shall be competent to sanction either conversion or sale, his powers in the --- latter case being limited to the value of Rs.1000/-.
If the estimated value is higher, the sanction of the Muzrai Commissioner shall be obtained.
4. The sale should be notified in the Mysore Gazette and local newspapers, when ever the estimated value exceeds Rs.1000/-, in addition to wide publication in the locality and neighbourhood which is required in all cases.
5. The sale shall be held in District Head Quarters in -

By
~~the presence of~~ the Deputy Commissioner or an ----- Assistant Commissioner deputed by him.

6. The sale proceeds shall be remitted by means of a R.T.R. to the Taluk concerned, where they will be credited to the funds of the respective temples.

NOTE:-

Conduct
h
With regard to the sale of very valuable jewels, the Deputy Commissioners should personally ~~attend~~ the sale after giving wide publicity. It is also desirable that adequate notice is given to important trading firms at Madras and Bangalore.

7. Regarding the jewels of village Institutions, the Amildar during his detailed inspection, once in 3 -- years, should in presence of the Patel, Archak and the village Panchayet, select such of the jewels as are unfit for use and make a report of the same to the Sub Division Officer. The Sub Division Officer should take further steps for the disposal of the -- jewels in accordance with the above Rules.

8. The Amildars may conduct sales of jewels of --- Village Institutions if the estimated value is not -- more than Rs.300/- the sales in other cases being - conducted as under Rule 5 above.

9. The sales conducted under either Rule 5 or Rule 8 will be subject to confirmation by the next higher Muzrai Officer.
